From the East . . .

Brethren,

Elections! Already?

Wow...It seems like just yesterday I was at the altar taking my oath to be your Worshipful Master. Now we are preparing for installation with the election of officers. We are truly blessed to have a competent and committed line of officers who will represent our lodge well and promote Masonry in Lubbock and throughout Texas. Please plan on meeting with us for elections at our stated meeting on June 5, 2020.

At our stated meeting, please be reminded that there will not be a meal, and if you are symptomatic please stay home. We will have precautions in place to make sure we are following Grand Lodge laws and the Grand Master's Proclamations. We will get as much work done as the Grand Lodge allows between now and the time I turn over the reins. Please be in attendance on 6/5/2020 for dates of degrees and examinations.

God Bless,
Joey Powers – WM (joeypowers@gmail.com)

From the South . . .

Greetings Brethren,

I can see the light at the end of the tunnel! The Governor is easing up on the COVID restrictions and life is starting to resume as normal. Masonry and all appendant bodies have been persevering through all of this using ZOOM meetings and staying in contact via technology. This is testament of our wonderful fraternity's strength. Our wonderful fraternity has experienced many difficult times through the years and we are still here! I urge you to wear our brand as the Most Worshipful Grand Master has asked us. When we are out and about our actions will have the square and compasses symbology attached so this will be a great way to keep Masonry on the minds of the public.

I read something the other day about what is your go to response to the question of “what is masonry?” He said, “you know how you would treat your elderly mother? That is how masons treat the public.” This was powerful to me and hope you have a very clever and powerful response you can go to when asked that question. Your response is important because first impressions are big impressions to a potential brother. Have your go to response rehearsed so it will come across genuine. I hope everyone is doing well . God bless you and God bless our wonderful fraternity!

Fraternally,
Junior Warden
Steve Sperry
